2002 U.S. Government's Top 5 Quality Software Projects

The Department of Defense and CrossTalk are currently accepting nominations for the 2002 U.S. Government's Top 5 Quality Software Projects. Outstanding performance of software teams will be recognized and best practices promoted.

These prestigious awards are sponsored by the Office of the Under Secretary of Defense for Acquisition Resources and Analysis, and are aimed at honoring the best of our government software capabilities and recognizing excellence in software development.

The deadline for the 2002 nominations is December 13, 2002. You can review the nomination and selection process, scoring criteria, and nomination criteria by visiting our Web site. Then, using the nomination form, submit your project for consideration for this prominent award.

Winners will be presented with their award at the 15th annual Software Technology Conference in Salt Lake City and will be featured in the July 2003 issue of CrossTalk and recognized at the Amplifying Your Effectiveness 2003 conference.
